Bring a Friend to Friends Day Next Sunday

Friends Day is next Sunday. I am very excited and looking forward to this great morning of worship and fellowship. What a great opportunity to bring a friend with you to worship God and think about Jesus who died for each of us and rose again. With 160 as our average attendance the last few weeks, we'll have 320 here worshipping God next week with everyone bringing one friend with them. Let us each commit to doing our part by personally being here, bringing a friend with us who needs more of Jesus in their lives, and beseeking the Father in heaven to bless our worship to Him and efforts to encourage others to make Jesus their friend for life. Let us all plan on bringing food for ourselves and our guests as we stay for continued fellowship and a meal together after worship.

Each day of this glorious week before us, remember to focus on Jesus imitating Him in your daily life. I look forward to seeing you tonight for continued worship and study of God's word. God bless you. I love you.

Kevin

Rejoicing with the Saved

Much rejoicing has taken place this past week as Cameron Tynes confessed his faith in Jesus and was baptized last Saturday. We rejoice with Cameron in his forgiveness of sins as he trusted in Jesus to save him by His blood in baptism. (Acts 2:38; Galatians 3:26-27; 1 Peter 3:21) Continue to remember Cameron in your prayers and encourage him. Cameron lives at 109 Cusik Court, 37128, and his phone # is 848-6770.
