Giving Worship and Praise to God

Welcome! We're glad you are here to give worship and praise to God with us today. For those visiting with us, we hope and pray for you a wonderful Easter Sunday with family and friends. As we assemble to worship God together on the first day of every week, we do so remembering the suffering of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ as He shed His blood for our sins. (Acts 20:6-7; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26) At the same time each week, we praise God for the empty tomb and rejoice that we serve a risen Savior who gives us living hope of eternal life in heaven at His return. (1 Peter 1:3-9) We want to invite you to come back and give worship and praise to God again next Sunday in the same way that we are today, remembering our Lord and Savior who died for us and rose again.

What a great weekend last weekend was! Twelve gathered early Saturday morning to clean up the church yard. Over fifty gathered together Sunday afternoon preparing almost two thousand invitations to be mailed to the Leanna community inviting everyone to Friends Day on April 18. Keep inviting people to be with us two weeks from today. Each day of this week before us, keep looking to Jesus striving to imitate Him a little more. God bless you. I love you.

Kevin
