Forgiving Like Jesus Forgave

“Father, forgive them, for they know do not know what they do.” (Luke 23:34) Jesus uttered these words while He was being crucified on the cross to the very ones who were crucifying Him. In striving to Imitate Him in 2010, let us strive to be forgiving like our Lord was forgiving, especially toward those who wrongly accuse us, mistreat us, and persecute us. This is what Jesus did. Let us give ourselves to forgive others like He forgave those who sinned against Him. When it is very hard for us to do so, may we pray to God to help us be forgiving to others like He forgave and is forgiving of us. We can forgive others by His power at work in us if we will but allow Him to help us. This is for sure what He has called us to, not only by His example, but also by His teaching. (Mt. 6:14-15; 18:21-35) May we each give ourselves to Imitate Him a little more in the week before us by being forgiving of others who sin against us. God bless you. I love you.

Kevin

To All Leanna Ladies

We will be starting up the Women's Visitation Group again in March! We are making some changes in the way we hope to do things, and it is exciting to think about how God will use this ministry to encourage our shut-ins as well as strengthen our bonds of friendship! Please come and meet with us the first Sunday evening of each month at 5:30 p.m. in the adult Bible classroom. Our first meeting will be Sunday, March 7th. Let's work together to do what we can for the Lord while imitating Him in 2010!!! Come - see - and be a part of what's going on - See you there!!
