Praying and Being Compassionate Like Jesus

In striving to imitate Jesus, I ask you to think with me about Jesus' first preaching tour in Galilee. (Mt. 4:23; 8:1-4; Mk. 1:35-45; Lk. 4:42-44; 5:12-16) As Jesus went about teaching and preaching and ministering to the needs of the people with great compassion, both Mark and Luke mention a habit of Jesus which He often made time for. This is His habit of getting away by Himself in a quiet place to pray to His Father in heaven.

“Now in the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a solitary place; and there He prayed. Then Jesus, moved with compassion, stretched out His hand and touched him, and said to him, ‘I am willing; be cleansed.’” NKJV Mk. 1:35,41 “So He Himself often withdrew into the wilderness and prayed.” NKJV Lk. 5:16

This week let us each strive to imitate Jesus in His habit of getting away by Himself to pray to His Father in heaven. May we imitate Jesus to the point where this becomes our daily habit. In so doing we will allow God's power to be at work in and through us more and more as He desires. May we also strive to be moved with compassion at the needs of others like Jesus was so that we give of ourselves to help them in any way that we can. God bless you. I love you.
Kevin
