Making Marks for the Master in May

The month of May is already here. One third of 2010 is history. Oh how time continues to fly by! First I want to remind you to keep on striving to “Imitate Him in 2010.” Look to Jesus daily, especially focusing on His life and example. Keep trying to walk in a few more of His steps each day.

Next, with May here before us, I want to encourage you to Make Marks for the Master throughout the month. Do so this month by thinking of those graduates among us who are finishing high school or college and be listening for times to gather together and rejoice with them. Do so by participating in our church picnic at Barfield Crescent Park on Sunday, May 16, following morning worship. Bring friends with you to enjoy the fellowship and food. Finally do so by planning to give generously on Sunday, May 30, as the entire contribution on Sunday, May 30, will go toward missions and local evangelism efforts.

Commit now to Make Marks for the Master in May by sharing His love and giving of self to help and encourage others. God bless you. I love you.

Kevin

Congratulations to the following College Graduates:

Ashley Hugh – MTSU – May 8
Karen Thomason – Harding University – May 8

Our love and sympathy are with Danny & Jequeta Thomason and Richard & Juanita Thomason in the death of their aunt, Barbara Thomason, whose funeral was Tuesday in Fayetteville. Barbara was also the sister-in-law to Maurice & Melba Thomason. Maurice was a former minister here at Leanna. For expressions of sympathy to Maurice & Melba their address is 3370 Robinson Road, Thompson Station, TN 37179.

A note of deep appreciation for the love and kindness shown during their time of sickness and bereavement has been received from the Family of Katrina Griffin.

A monetary memorial gift to the Leanna Building Fund was received from Frances Weaver given in memory of Gwendolyn Ann Davis.
