Helping Those in Need

We have opportunity to help those in need as the time of Christmas approaches. We are helping some among us here at Leanna with the basic needs of food, clothing, and toys for their children as well as teaming up with the Child Advocacy Center of Rutherford County who have given us the responsibility of providing food, clothing, and toys for three children - ages 6, 4, and 2 along with their mother, who is 22. The Child Advocacy Center works with children of families who critically need crisis intervention to help provide for their needs during very difficult circumstances.

For us to provide for these families during this time of Christmas, you can help in two ways: by contributing money as well as doing the shopping and wrapping the presents. Please put money (or check made payable to Leanna Church of Christ for Benevolence) in an envelope marked "For Christmas Needs" and give it to one of the following five brothers who make up our benevolent committee: Issac Bell, Terry Harris, Roy McMahan, David Russell, or Ray Shockney. If you would like to help with the shopping and gift wrapping, please let one of them know. The money needs to be turned into one of them by Sunday evening, December 13.

Thank God with me for these opportunities to help those in need during this time of year, and I am sure we will respond with generosity as this congregation always does to situations like this. As you go forth throughout the week ahead, keep on striving to let your light shine before others through good works to the glory of our Father in heaven. God bless you. I love you.
