Great Homecoming and Much Rejoicing

Last Sunday was a great day of worship, fellowship, and rejoicing here at Leanna. Jeff Adcock blessed us with wonderful messages from God's word during the Sunday School and worship hours. Then we enjoyed a wonderful meal together in our fellowship area. Thank you to everyone who worked so hard to prepare the meal and clean up afterwards. Then much rejoicing took place after our meal together as Jo Ann Edwards confessed her faith in Jesus and was baptized into Christ for the forgiveness of her sins. Encourage Jo Ann in her new life in Christ and keep her in your prayers as she begins to journey with us toward our eternal home with God in heaven. Jo Ann and her daughter, Shayla, live at 118 East Kingwood Dr. Apt. G 9, 37130. Their phone # is 396-8406.

This morning I am beginning a series of messages with you from Jesus teachings to His disciples on the mountain from Matthew 5 – 7. This is very powerful teaching from our Lord and Savior about what it truly is all about to follow Him as His disciple. May we begin today to take these teachings of our Lord and apply them to our lives where we are right now in our walk with Him to become more the disciples He has called us to be.

The cans for filling up with your loose coins for Tennessee Children's Home are on the table in the back of the auditorium. Take one home and return it when it is full to bless the lives of children who are in great need. As we all go forth this week, let us each continue with our commitment to let our light shine before others that they may see our good works and glorify the Father who is in heaven. God bless you. I love you.

Kevin

THOUGHTS TO PONDER

A weak faith is weakened by predicaments and catastrophes whereas a strong faith is strengthened by them.

Worry does not empty tomorrow of its problems, but only empties today of its strength.
