SCHEDULE OF SERVICES SUNDAY: CLASSES: 9 AM WORSHIP: 10 AM & 6PM; WED. 7 PM

Pains and Prayers

After Paul pleaded with the Lord three times to take away his thorn in the flesh, Paul heard these words from the Lord. “May grace is sufficient for you.” (2 Cor. 12:7-9) Just as the Lord met Paul’s needs even though He did not take away his thorn in the flesh, He will help you through your aches and pains too. Just as the Lord’s strength enabled Paul to continue on, you can continue on too in spite of your pain with the strength of Christ at work in you.

The older each of us gets, the more we appreciate a strong, healthy body. We each must continue to strive to take care of the “temple of the Holy Spirit.” (1 Cor. 6:19) However, the older we get, the more we each feel the burdens of the body. It tends to become easy to excuse ourselves from our responsibilities as Christians simply because “we don’t feel like it.”

Remember that Christ purchased you when He died for you on the cross. As a Christian, He has called you to magnify Him in and through your body. (Phil. 1:19-21) Next time you are having one of those “don’t feel like it” days:

1. First turn it over to God immediately. He knows your weaknesses, and His grace is sufficient for you to overcome them. Only Christ can turn your pain into victory and weakness into power.
2. Read 2 Cor. 11:23-12:10 and notice what the grace of God did for Paul. He will do the same for you and me today as we trust in Him to see us through.

God is so good! He wants to be there for you. Let Him be in a powerful way by praying and yielding to Him each and every day. Then and only then, can He lead you to victory over the crisis you are in the midst of. As He does, continue to go forth letting your light shine before others to the glory of your Father in heaven. God bless you. I love you.

Kevin

Rejoicing

Rejoice with Dan and Teresa Wilson and their daughter, Amber Waycaster, as she confessed her faith in Christ anew and was baptized into Christ again this past Monday night following the RYMM at the Walter Hill congregation. May God bless Amber as she goes forth in the recommitment of her life to Christ with a clear conscience.
